

JORDAN MIKOLAJEWSKI

Pitching Instructor

- Played HS baseball for the Mount Carmel Caravan of the CCL.
 - Member of the 2015 IHSA Class 4A State-Runner Up Team
 - CCL Blue Division Champions in 2014
- Started his collegiate career, pitching over 25 innings in relief for the Tigers of Iowa Wesleyan.
- Continued at Oakton Community College as both a player and a coach. Was a relief pitcher for the Owls before a stress fracture put him on the sidelines. Helped coach the Owls to the 2018 NJCAA DIII World Series Championship.
- Earned a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration/Management while finishing out his collegiate career with the Lakers of Roosevelt University.
 - Pitched over 86 innings as a starter for the Lakers, over 43 in his senior season. His final season stats include an ERA of 3.9, an OBA of .255, all while putting up 31 K's.
 - logged two stellar complete games in his final season against top CCAC contenders: University of St. Francis and St. Ambrose University.
- Believes that mental control and the ability to adjust as a pitcher are keys to making yourself "invaluable" to a team.
